

I am concerned about LPFM stations taking priority over stations such as Air 1. My radio is set to Air 1 80% of the time. It is family friendly and encouraging. The music and message it provides is of the highest quality. It also provides a type of programming that is not found elsewhere on the radio. Thank you for your consideration.